

Parent Update

WEEK OF JANUARY 8, 2024

Happy New Year!

Mid-Year Benchmark Testing

The Elizabeth Forward School District will administer mid-year benchmarking assessments beginning Monday, January 8. The week of January 8, students in grades K-2 will participate in the AIMS Web+ reading assessments. In addition, January 8 – January 19, all students K-5 will complete the NWEA MAPS reading and mathematics assessments. Instructional teams will use these results to ensure that students receive necessary supports to strengthen their skills. Results will be shared with families at the end of January.

PTO Meeting

January's PTO meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 10 at 6:00 PM in the Mount Vernon Library. All parents/guardians are welcome to attend.

No School: January 15

Classes are cancelled on January 15 for the end of semester clerical day. Report cards will be issued on February 6.

Two-Hour Delay: January 16

There is a two-hour delay on Tuesday, January 16 for staff professional development. All bus pickups will be delayed by exactly two hours. Doors at Greenock will open at 10:50; doors at Mount Vernon will open at 11:00.

Marianna Fundraiser

The Marianna hoagie and pizza fundraiser is in its final week. All orders and payment are due on Tuesday, February 16. Please help support this annual fundraiser for the 5th grade gifts and field trip to Pine Cove. It takes your support to continue this wonderful tradition for our students as they end their elementary years.
